These are the plans as of now. As we have learned on previous trips, sometimes things don’t work out as planned. In that case, we will adapt. You will probably hear me say several times during the week, “we need to be flexible.” Team meetings are not optional. That is the time we make our announcements concerning any changes that have to be made and to give instructions for the next day’s activities.

While in Corozal, you will be staying at Tony’s Inn. The phone number there is: 011-501-422-2055.
